Come out and be a voice for your community.

Take part in the development and programs that happen in your area!

Open positions on the Woodvale Board from Oct 2015 to Sept 2016 are:

- One Director at Large: Executive position
- Person to oversee 66 Street/38 Avenue signboard: changes Woodvale signboard to promote events in the community
- Community League Day Chair: organizes Woodvale's Community League Day for September 17, 2016
- Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues (EFCL) Representative: attends meetings with EFCL for the Woodvale Community League and provides feedback between board and EFCL
- Hockey Representative: is the local liaison between Mill Woods Hockey and the Woodvale Community League registrations etc.
- Mill Woods Cultural and Recreational Facility Association (MCARFA) Representative: liaison between the Woodvale Community League and MCARFA
- Volunteer Appreciation Event Chair: organizes a volunteer appreciation event to thank volunteers that have helped out on Woodvale events in the previous year
- Woodvale Big Bin Chair: organizes an annual big bin event for the Woodvale community to dispose of many items that would go to the city dump
- Other positions may also be available

Community league involvement is great for networking, learning what is happening before it happens and gives you insight and a voice into the projects in your neighborhood and surrounding areas.

Casino volunteers are needed for our next scheduled event on Saturday, March 19 and Sunday, March 20, 2016. If you wish to volunteer, please call Angela at (780)910-6040.

Woodvale AGM is scheduled for Tuesday, October 19, 2015 at 7pm. There are open positions that we could use your assistance with! Not a big time commitment but very rewarding! Come out and get informed about community projects and planning!

Ski night updates will be available on the Woodvale website. More details to come in the January edition!
